THE LARGEST MONOLITH.

The enormous pillar of stone that will be the wonder of thousands upon thousands of people who will visit the World's fair was broken from its bed at the Houghton quarry, Ashland, Wis., amid the cheers of the throng who visited the quarry to witness the breaking of the monolith. The stone had been sawed at each end and side, and but the bottom remained to be broken from the bed of which it was a part. On the bottom wedges to the number of about 500 on each side had been entered and only the signal to drive them further home was needed. At 11 o'clock Frederick Proctor, donor of the monolith, from a place on the rock gave the signal to drive the wedges, and fifty workmen began at the lower end to drive them. Then, like clockwork, the fifty mauls of the men rose and fell as they moved from the base to the apex of the stone step by step. Slowly a crevice appeared at the lower end of the stone, which, with each succeeding blow became larger and larger, until the stone lay broken in two and the monolith it had been a portion. The huge stone lies at the bottom of the quarry, and weighs in its present state 600 tons, but when dressed down will weigh about 420 tons.—Cor. St. Paul Pioneer Press.

A Few Points on Boston.

Here is a scrap of conversation I heard in walking down the street the other day.
Two men were back of me. One said:
"Yes, of course Chicago is a very enterprising city. It will probably make a success of the fair. It will always seem to me, however, that we should have had
it. Boston is really the historical center of our country, you know."
"Boston have the fair? What has Boston ever done for the country? It has turned out a few pointed steel shoes; parted its hair and its name in the middle; started the fashion in eyeglasses; worn its overcoat shorter than its under-coat; got its pronunciation up to the limit of broadness; stocked up in conceit and culture, and it has an under-crust and uppercrust of brown bread and baked beans. What has any one of these things to do with the growth of the country?"
They turned a corner, and I couldn't hear the answer.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

An Electric Sleigh.

Mr. C. J. Schminsky has applied for a patent on an electric sleigh. Stored electricity concealed beneath the seat of the sleigh furnishes the power which is to propel the vehicle. This power is transmitted to a single wheel in front of the sleigh by means of an endless chain.
The face of the wheel is furnished with cutters, which imbed themselves in the snow and prevent the wheel from slipping.
Mr. Schminsky says that a speed of twenty or fifteen miles an hour can be attained by his motor. A lever to control the steering gear and another lever to regulate the speed of the sleigh are placed near the occupant's seat in the sleigh.—Baltimore Sun.

Clara Jane's Hardworking Hen.

Clara Jane Edwards has placed on our table two large hen eggs. They are about the size of turkey eggs. Clara Jane says that the hen that laid 'em has laid two of this size every day for the last four years, but has now gone to setting. The eggs have been broken in the frying pan and they have each two yolks.
A little calculation will show that this is nearly 3,000 eggs in the space of four years from one hen, equal to 12,000 common sized hen eggs.—Stewart County

ELECTING SENATORS BY DIRECT VOTE.

A Bill to Ascertain the Will of the People on the Subject.

The following bill introduced by Senator Patchen of Lincoln has passed the Senate: WHEREAS, It is expedient that the wishes of the people of this State upon the subject of the election of United States Senators should be manifestly expressed; therefore

The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That thirty days prior to the next general State election, the Governor shall issue his proclamation calling upon the electors to signify at said election their will as to the method of the election of United States Senators, by placing upon the ballot the words: "For the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people," or the words: "Against the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people;" and the Inspectors and the Judges of Election at each and every poll in the State shall ascertain and make returns of the number of votes cast "for the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people," and the number of votes cast "against the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people," in like manner as other votes are required to be counted and returned, and an abstract thereof shall be transmitted by each County Clerk in the State to the Secretary of State, in the same manner that votes for State officers are now required to be transmitted.

Sec. 2. The Secretary of State shall make a complete abstract of the votes given at said election, and certify the same to the Governor.

Sec. 3. The Governor shall prepare a memorial from the people of the State of Nevada, attested by the Secretary of State, with the great seal of State attached, setting forth in brief the question submitted to the electors, and the vote thereon, and send copies thereof to the President and Vice President of the United States, to each Cabinet Minister, Senator, Member of the House of Representatives, and the Governor of each State and Territory in the United States of America.

LOVELOCK NOTES.

Items of Interest Taken From the "New Era."

A prominent resident of Reno has lately purchased a block of town lots in Lovelock.

Dan Wheeler of Reno, the owner of large bands of sheep, is here arranging to ship 10 cars of sheep to Shoshone, Beale & Co., San Francisco.

William Organ, who is working the Humboldt Queen mine near Rye Patch, has presented the New Era with a specimen of ore from the mine that assays between $2,000 and $3,000 per ton.

Parties are negotiating for the purchase of the gold claims owned by J. F. Clark and E. Stodgers at Central, 14 miles out of Mill City. The property is one of the best gold propositions in the State.

Jas. and S. A. Hendra are working four men on the Golden Chariot mine at Don Glen, eight miles east of Mill City. The ore seam has been developed by tunnels, exposing a four-foot vein of ore, assayed with strings of gold which often assay $1,000 to the ton in gold. The brothers have a five-stamp mill in Don Glen Canyon which will run on ore when Spring opens.

Card of Thanks.

We, the bereaved husband and daughter, wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends who have aided and sympathized with us in our great affliction.

F. C. Van Dusen,
Anna F. Van Dusen.

RESOURCES OF WESTERN HUMBOLDT.

A Country Rich in Minerals—Productive Agricultural Lands.

New Era.

Is it surprising that Eastern capital is not seeking investments in Nevada, when one-half of Nevada does not know the resources of the other half?

FERTILIZERS AND CROPS.

How many Nevadans in White Pine, Lincoln, Eureka or Nye counties are aware that an immense mountain of gypsum is being quarried outside the town of Lovelock, and the product shipped to the vineyards, orchards and wheat fields of California to neutralize the alkali of that region; or that antimony is shipped by the car load from the mines of Southernland, fourteen miles distant. Have they ever heard of the sizzle and cobalt lodes of Cottonwood, tributary to this place; or the towering cliffs of copper soon to be smelted by the White Cloud Copper Mining Company at Clemens, thirty miles distant; and while 150 Chinamen are at-day at work on the placer grounds of American Canyon, twenty miles east of Lovelock, but little is ever heard of their work, or the country in which they operate, although over $6,000,000 in gold nuggets and dust has been extracted. The Arabia mine, in Trinity District are lead ores and supplied the first smelter erected and operated in the West, which was located at the deserted town Oresana, and before the railroad had reached that point, hundreds of tons of lead bullion, were corded near the reduction works. Near the lead properties is a vein of low grade, free-milling silver rock, sufficiently abundant to keep 100 stamps in operation for a decade. The Trinity gold mines in the same district are operated by Port Huron, Michigan, men. The iron mines, owned by Lovelockers, situated to the east of town, shipped 50 carloads of iron ore to the Pacific Rolling Mills last Fall and resume shipments in a month or two. This was the first iron shipped out of the State. The metal as quarried gives 86 per cent ferric oxide and 11 per cent aluminum.

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

And above all how many Nevadans have heard of the agricultural achievements of the Big Meadows of the Humboldt, where 15,000 to 20,000 acres of land are under cultivation, producing as high as two tons of wheat to an acre, averaging three crops of alfalfa and eight tons of potatoes; where to-day 5,000 head of range cattle are fattening for the market and 10,000 head of sheep, and from which point, 400 to 500 carloads of wheat and several train-loads of potatoes were transported to the California market last Fall?

THE INSANE ASYLUM.

A Model Report on its Condition and Management.

EDITOR JOURNAL—A few days since some one sent me a copy of Superintendent Thomas's report of the management of the Nevada Insane Asylum for the year 1892, and not having much to do since, I have given it a careful examination with the result that I am greatly pleased with it, and taking the statements contained as being in accord with the facts, I am inclined to the belief that the State has at least one public official who considers it his duty not only to conduct the affairs of his office according to law and the best interests of the people of the State and the wards under his control, but to faithfully make known in detail, all and several, the transactions of the Asylum management.

I think the report will answer almost any question that any one might think to ask concerning the treatment and well-being of the inmates, as well as the financial condition and business management of the Asylum and a State institution. Under appropriate heads the Superintendent tells of what he found on assuming charge two years ago and the changes, repairs and improvements made since as well as the cost of each and the present condition of the buildings and land, even going so far as to fully explain the reasons for certain changes from the plans and suggestions or orders of the State Board with regard to certain improvements agreed upon. The amount and value of farm products is carefully itemized with the suggestion that a large portion of the expenses of maintaining the Asylum can be saved by a judicious management of the farming industry connected. Indeed, the whole report leads one to the conclusion that the management "only regards" the duty to maintain the Asylum at the lowest cost possible while giving the inmates wholesome food, comfortable clothing and kind as well as efficient treatment looking to an early cure of all mental as well as physical maladies. And it is particularly noticeable that the doctor understands the law in regard to the collection of the expenses of keeping from those inmates who are not indigent. In short it would seem that the Superintendent is not only willing, but anxious that the people of the State should be informed of every and all matters of detail connected with the management. This is refreshing and in contrast with so many of our public officials whose acts would lead a stranger to believe they were bosses rather than servants or agents.

Sec. 3. Sec. 4. The license provided for in this Act shall be collected and accounted for in the same manner as other licenses for State and county purposes are now collected.

Socks for Simpson.

In the Assembly chamber the other afternoon Miss Martin, reporter for the News, would put down a note and then knit a few stitches in a pair of socks, keeping it up during the session. Bob Hamill stood the proceeding until his patience was worn out and then sent up this resolution to the Clerk's desk:

Resolved, That when the socks are finished they be forwarded to Jerry Simpson of Kansas.

Pike moved as an amendment that they be given to the Speaker.

Amid much laughter Speaker Bell declared the resolution out of order.—Tribune.

That Woman Again.

Not Langtry, Fay Templeton or Kellogg. None of those kind. A prime, noble woman. The authoress of the masterpiece, Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe is entitled to the praise of the entire country. No work ever published, no play ever dramatized, has taught the lesson as "Uncle Tom's Cabin," Sutton's Grand Double Company of 37 people, with big band and a carload of dogs, donkeys and beautiful Shetland ponies, the largest company ever organized to play "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will surely be here at the Opera House next Thursday evening.
